

limits of said railroad to the east side of a branch known as the "Cotty Cox branch;" thence by and with and binding on the east side of said branch to a stone; thence south seventy-one and one-half degrees east to a large white oak standing at the northwest corner of "Parsons' cemetery;" thence south seventy-one and one-half degrees east to a stone standing on the west line of a road known as the "Truitt road," leading from the Mount Hermon road to the "Middle Neck road;" thence by and with and binding on the west side of said "Truitt road" south nine degrees and ten minutes east to the shell road leading to Berlin, known as East Church street; thence across said street and binding on the west side of said "Truitt road" south nine degrees east to the north line of said Mount Hermon road; thence by and with the north line of said Mount Hermon road and binding thereon north eighty-seven degrees and forty-five minutes west sixty-eight, and fifteen minutes west to a point on the south bank of "Humphreys' mill pond" and the land dividing Benjamin H. Parker's land from the Dr. Eugene W. Humphreys' land; thence by and with said line south twenty-two degrees and fifteen minutes west to a stone on the south line of the "Shumaker road;" thence south thirty degrees and fifty-two minutes west one hundred and two and fifty-hundredths of a pole to a stone standing on the north line of the Snow Hill road at corner of the land of George T. Huston and George William Parsons' land; thence south thirty degrees and fifty-two minutes west forty-seven and fifty-six hundredths of a pole to a stone standing in a direct line with the south line of the N. T. Fitch line extended; thence north seventy-three degrees and thirty minutes west ninety-one and fifty-six hundredths of a pole to southeast corner of said "Fitch land;" thence by and with south line of said land north seventy-three degrees and thirty minutes west to the line of Camden avenue; thence north twenty degrees and fifteen minutes west to a stone standing at the southwest corner of George S. Williams' lot, and on the east side of River street; thence by and with and binding on the east line of River street to the Wicomico river, and from thence across said river in a straight line to the point of beginning.

132. And be it enacted, That all the property, franchises and funds of every kind belonging to or in the possession of the Mayor and Council of Salisbury are vested in this corporation; and the said corporation may receive in trust and may control for the purpose of such trust all moneys or other property which may have been or shall be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed or any other form of gift or conveyance in trust, for any general corporate purpose, or in aid of the indi-